DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The recitation of "the signal" recited in claim 1, line 4 lacks antecedent basis.

Similar problem exists for the same recitation recited in claim 3, line 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cioffi et al (US 6,473,438).

Regarding claims 1-6, Cioffi, as shown in figures 4 and 5, teaches a DSI modem comprising a notch filter (185), a transmitter (140), receiver (17), and an echo canceller (column 28, lines 63-66). See also column 2, lines 5-36; column 12, lines 1-27; column 26, lines 38-67; column 28, line 29 to column 29, line 4.

Art Unit: 2611

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. References Betts et al (US 5,828,657) and Ryan et al (US 2002/0176401) are cited because they are pertinent to echo canceller used in modem.
